The GableStage production of "A Round-Heeled Woman" stars Sharon Gless and Howard Elfman.

Multiple Emmy and Golden Globe winner Sharon Gless (Burn Notice, Queer As Folk and Cagney & Lacey), will star in "A Round-Heeled Woman" at GableStage now through Jan. 30. A Round-Heeled Woman is based on the true story of Jane Juska and written for the stage and directed by Jane Prowse.

The play also stars Antonio Amadeo, Steve Anthony, Howard Elfman, Kim Ostrenko and Laura Turnbull.

The play follows the story of a former high school English teacher, celibate for 30 years, who sets out to rectify the situation by placing an ad in the personals in the New York Review of Books: "Before I turn 67 - next March - I would like to have a lot of sex with a man I like. If you want to talk first,

Trollope works for me."

GableStage is inviting theater patrons to spend New Year's Eve with the cast. GableStage will hold a special 9 p.m. performance Friday, Dec. 31. Guests can then join Sharon Gless and the cast for a champagne buffet in the Prado Room of the Biltmore Hotel. Tickets: Subscribers - $100 per person; Non-Subscribers - $125 per person.

GableStage is located in the eastern section of the Biltmore Hotel, 1200 Anastasia Ave., Coral Gables. For reservations or information, call the Box Office at 305-445-1119 or go online at www.GableStage.org.
